

Presenters:

Mateen Afzal is the General Manager and part owner of Pdc Machines Inc. a second generation family owned manufacturing company in Warminster PA. Founded in 1977 Pdc is a manufacture of high pressure equipment and compressors for the Specialty Chemical, Industrial Gas and Renewable Energy industries. Pdc is the number one global supplier of compressors for use in Hydrogen refueling stations for car and fork lift filling. Pdc has over 70 employees, 24 million in sales and close to 80,000 sq ft of plant space. For the past 2 years Mateen has served on the Board of Pearl S. Buck Intl.

Rich Moore is the US Director of Human Resources for the Almac Group. He oversees all HR activities for Almac's business units in North America, including the areas of recruitment, payroll, employee relations, compensation and benefits. He obtained a BA in Human Resource Administration and Management from Temple University in Philadelphia before starting his human resources career with the publisher of Human Resources Executive Magazine. Since 1999, he's acted as HR Director for a startup email ASP, and in 2002 he took up a similar position with a provider of IT consulting and management services to healthcare organizations.

Leslie A. Wheeling is the Director of Human Resources for Clemens Food Group, where she has worked for over 7 years. Prior to that, she worked in Santiago, Chile as an International Market Analyst and studied Strategy and Development at Villanova University's MBA program. Leslie has a passion for helping people to live their best lives and making a positive impact in the world.